
REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT DIALOGUE

RDD

Vol. 26, No. 2, Autumn 2005, Special Issue*

DECENTRALIZATION: POVERTY REDUCTION, EMPOWERMENT, AND PARTICIPATION

EDITORIAL INTRODUCTION

Cristino M. Collado Battling Poverty and Promoting Development through Decentralization and Empowerment v

ARTICLES

UN/DESA and UNCRD Articles

Olympios Katsiaouni Decentralization: Poverty Reduction,
Empowerment, and Participation 3

Devyani Mani Strengthening Decentralized Governance for Human Security 19

Kazunobu Onogawa,
C. R. C. Mohanty,
Aditi Joshi, and
Peter Popovics Engaging Civil Society in Promoting Environmentally Sustainable Cities in Asia — from the Perspective of Cleaner Transport and Improved Waste Management 37

Bishnu Hari Pandey and
Kenji Okazaki Community-Based Disaster Management:
Empowering Communities to Cope with Disaster
Risks 52

* Published in collaboration with the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs (UN/DESA) under the terms of UN/DESA project number ST/ESA/PAD/SER.E/79.

Country-Specific Articles

Josefa S. Edralin and Cristino M. Collado	Decentralized Governance and Food Security: Perceptions from Rural Local Governments and Communities in Bulacan Province, the Philippines	61
	Comment: Ed. B. Prantilla	90
Suprayoga Hadi	Enhancing Local Governance through Decentralization Policy in Managing Conflict- Affected Regions in Eastern Indonesia	96
	Comment: Geronimo M. Collado	110
Prum Sokha	Decentralization and Poverty Reduction in Cambodia: Experiences and Challenges	114
	Comment: Eng Netra	121
Ropate Qalo	Devolved Governance as a Tool in Accelerating Village Development in Fiji, Harnessing Local Potential: The Case of Na Vanua 'O Natewa	127
	Comment: Biman C. Prasad	138
Vinod Vyasulu	Overcoming Constraints in Implementing Poverty Reduction Strategies through Decentralized Structures in India	140
	Comment: George B. Matthew	154

Bishwa Keshar Maskay	Poverty Reduction through Decentralization and Effective Local Governance in Nepal	158
	Comment: Baku Takahashi	168
	Contributors	171